

Let's Talk: Disney

What if Ariel could spend one day on land with you—where would you take her?

Would you rather go under the sea with Ariel or fly with Peter Pan?

Have you ever wished for magical hair like Rapunzel?

Have you ever tried to sing like Ariel?

Have you ever danced around the house like a prince or princess?

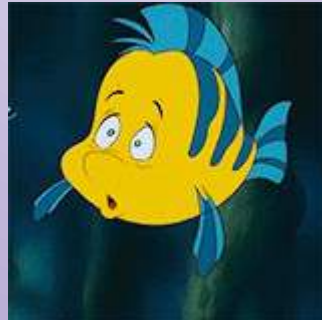

If you could visit one Disney castle, which would you choose?

If you could have one animal sidekick, who would you choose?

If you could wear one princess outfit for a day, whose would it be?

If you could have one magical Disney power, what would it be?

If Mickey Mouse became your teacher for one day, what would class be like?

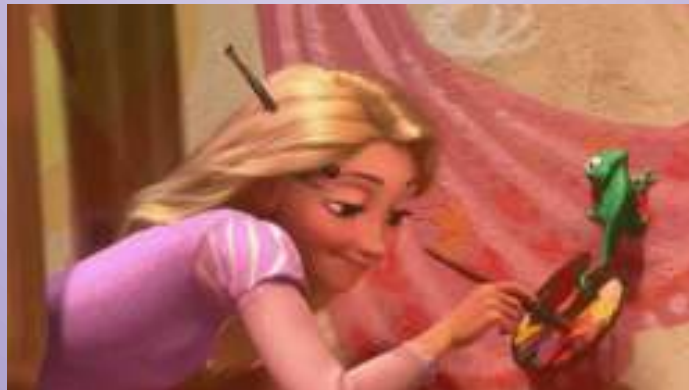

What if all the Disney princesses had a sleepover—who would stay up the latest?

What if Rapunzel painted your bedroom walls—what would she paint?

What if Snow White baked treats for your family?

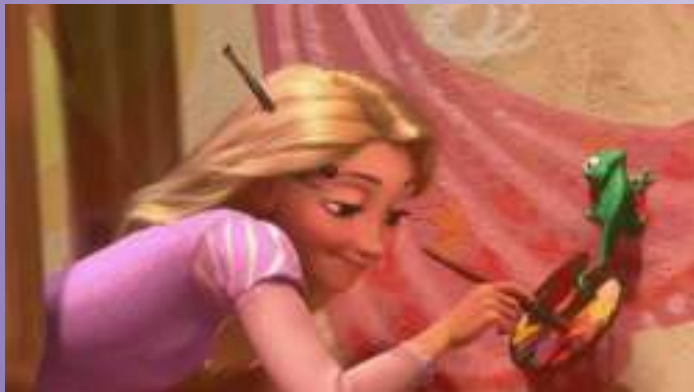

What if Aurora woke up in your neighborhood?

What if Peter Pan asked you to fly to Neverland tonight?

Would you rather spend the day painting with Rapunzel or reading with Belle?

Would you rather have tea with Alice or picnic with Winnie the Pooh?

Have you ever dressed up like a prince, princess, pirate, or hero?

If you could help Cinderella before the ball, what would you do?

If you could visit either Neverland, Wonderland, or under the sea, which would you choose?

If you could spend one rainy day inside Beast's castle, what room would you explore first?

What if every Disney princess had to go camping together
—who would bring the weirdest supplies?
