

What do you think?

All students should have homework.
Parents should always clean up after their children.
It is important to go outside and do something active every single day.
Children should not eat desserts.
All children should have pets.
Dessert should come after every meal.
Children should not be able to watch TV.
It is important to celebrate birthdays.
All students should have a computer.
Children should not be allowed to eat fast food.
It is important to recycle.
It is important to travel to other countries.
The internet is dangerous.
All children should read every day.
All children should do sports.
It is important that all families have at least 2 children.
All children should learn English.